About the Event

Jefferson County Community Ministries (JCCM) will host its Love Thy Neighbor Gala, 40th Anniversary black-tie optional dinner celebration on Saturday, May 13, 2023, at the Ranson Civic Center. Attendance will support JCCM's endowment funding for current sustainability and future growth.

The event will feature America's Got Talent Season 6 Winner, Landau Murphy, Jr. and professional cover band, Liquid A. The celebration is open to all for a night of fun, fellowship, dancing, and silent-auction festivities. Further details of the night's events will be posted as planning transpires.

Jefferson County Community Ministries is a faith-based organization focused on providing assistance to the needy within Jefferson County since 1983. A cooperative ministry of local churches, it helps individuals in need by providing assistance when and where they need it most. JCCM devotes resources to emergency assistance, as well as to services geared towards helping clients access long-term solutions.
